Altering Boundaries of Dannevirke and Woodville Counties.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Dannevirke County Council, in pursuance of subsection three of section three of the Counties Amendment Act, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), duly presented a petition, in accordance with the said subsection three, praying that the boundaries of the Counties of Woodville and Dannevirke be altered by including in the said County of Dannevirke the area of the County of Woodville described in that petition:

And whereas a Commission was appointed to inquire and report thereon in accordance with the said subsection three, and has duly reported that the boundaries of the said counties should be altered in the manner described in the report of the said Commission:

And whereas it is expedient to alter the boundaries of the said counties in such manner as is deemed to be in accordance with such report:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by the said Act, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim and declare that the area described in the First Schedule hereto, being now part of the County of Woodville, shall, as from the thirty-first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, be deemed to be added to and form part of the County of Dannevirke; and, with the like power and authority, do also proclaim and declare that the boundaries of the Counties of Woodville and Dannevirke as so altered shall be those set forth under the respective headings in the Second Schedule hereto.
