Electric Line Regulations.—Transmission of Telegrams by Telephone.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this thirtieth day of October, 1916.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the sixteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, regulations were made under the authority of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), for the transmission of telegrams by telephone: And whereas it is desirable to revoke such regulations and to make other regulations in lieu thereof:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities in that behalf enabling him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke the regulations hereinbefore referred to, and in lieu thereof doth make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth order that the regulations hereby made shall form part of and be read together with the regulations made under the said Act by Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and shall have effect on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

SCHEDULE.

TRANSMISSION OF TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE.

1. (1) SUBSCRIBERS to telephone exchanges and owners of private lines connected with telephone bureaux may, by pre-arrangement in writing with the telegraph office, have telegraphic messages which are addressed to them forwarded by telephone from the office of destination to their business or private addresses. Such messages will, after transmission, be posted for delivery to such address, and be marked on the front "Transmitted by telephone."

(2) Subscribers and owners of private lines may, upon application on the form provided, also telephone to any telegraph office connected with a telephone exchange, during the ordinary hours of telegraph attendance, if the exchange is open, messages to be further transmitted from the telegraph office to the respective destinations of such messages as telegrams, provided the usual cost of such telegrams is paid in addition to the fees prescribed.

2. If desired, short Press messages up to fifty words may be telephoned to newspapers the proprietors of which are subscribers to a telephone exchange, and who agree to pay the fee for so doing. After being telephoned, such messages will be delivered by messenger, when their values (if "collect"), together with the fee for telephoning, will be collected.

3. The provisions of the foregoing regulations may be availed of during the ordinary hours for attendance of officers at the telegraph office, except in the case of offices where officers are on duty until 10 p.m., when telegrams may be telephoned up to that hour.

4. (1.) At all offices where provision is made for the delivery of telegrams, the charges for messages telephoned over a subscriber's line or that of a private-wire owner, to a destination within the limits of the free delivery of telegrams, shall be as follows:—
