Authorizing the Laying-off of Harding Street and Oliphant Road, in the Town of Hastings Extension No. 21, of a Width of not less than 66 ft.

Department of Lands and Survey,
Wellington, 1st November, 1916.

IN pursuance of the power and authority conferred upon me by section 15 of the Land Act, 1908, I hereby authorize the laying-off of Harding Street and Oliphant Road, in the Town of Hastings Extension No. 21, Hawke's Bay Land District, of a width of not less than 66 ft. instead of 99 ft.

F. H. D. BELL,
For Minister of Lands.

Rules for the Examination of Masters, Mates, and Engineers.

Marine Department.

Wellington, N.Z., 27th October, 1916.

WHEREAS by Warrant dated the 29th day of July, 1910, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 74, of the 2nd day of August following, rules were made for the examination of candidates for certificates of competency as masters and mates: And whereas it is desirable to make additional rules:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by section 23 of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, I do hereby make the following rules for the examination of candidates for certificates of competency as masters, mates, and engineers, and do hereby order that they shall be embodied in and read with the said rules of the 29th day of July, 1910.

ROBERT McNAB,
Minister of Marine.

RULES.

1. DURING the existence of the present war no person may be examined for a certificate of competency as master, extra master, master (home trade), or engineer unless—

- (a.) He is a British subject; and
- (b.) At the time of his birth each of his parents was a British subject by birth, or by naturalization in New Zealand.

2. In order to prove that he complies with these conditions every candidate for any of the certificates named must produce to the Examiner of masters, mates, or engineers his own birth certificate and the birth certificate or certificate of naturalization of each of his parents. These documents must be lodged with the Examiner at least one week before the day on which the candidate wishes to present himself for examination.

3. If in any case there is any doubt whether a candidate complies with the conditions set out in the above rules, the matter must be referred by the Examiner to the Marine Department.
