The special rates applicable to ordinary communications between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m. shall not apply to urgent communications, and shall apply only at telephone exchanges which are open after 8 p.m.

A toll line is any departmental line (as distinct from a subscriber's line) connecting two places or exchanges, for the use of which a charge is made. Until further defined, all lines, except subscribers' lines, are toll lines.

When a communication requiring the use of a toll line cannot be had owing to absence, inattention, or other fault on the part of the subscriber with whom it is desired to communicate, a fee shall be paid for the service rendered as for one minute for the length of line engaged, with a minimum charge of 3d. for every ordinary connection and 6d. for every urgent connection.

On holidays, during office hours, bureau communications are allowed between bureaux which can communicate direct with each other or through an exchange which is open on holidays.

Urgent bureau communications take priority over non-urgent communications.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
