At the Government House at Wellington, this eighteenth day of November, 1916.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest:

And whereas by Order in Council made on the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and gazetted on the same day, in pursuance of the said Acts, the exportation of wool, inter alia, was prohibited to any other destination than the United Kingdom, except with the consent of the Minister of Customs:

And whereas it is now deemed expedient to amend the aforesaid Order in Council in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby amend the aforesaid Order in Council of the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, by prohibiting the export of wool from the said Dominion to any destination, except with the consent of the Minister of Customs.
