

Act, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), present a petition to His Excellency the Governor, praying that the boundaries of the said district might be altered so as to include such lands in the said district:

And whereas in respect thereof a Commission has been appointed to inquire and report as to the several matters mentioned in subsection three of section four of the said Act:

And whereas the Commission so appointed has reported that such lands should be included in the said district, and ought to become liable to the full extent for the future levy of a certain rate already made by the said Board:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by section four of the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby order and declare that as on and from the date hereof the boundaries of the said district are hereby altered so as to include in the said district the lands described in the First Schedule hereto, and that the boundaries of the Hutt River District, shall be those set forth in the Second Schedule hereto; and, with the like advice and consent, doth also direct that the lands so included shall be liable for the future levy of the rate heretofore made by the Board of the said district in respect of a loan of five thousand pounds authorized by ratepayers of the said district on the ninth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.
