Defining Districts within which Liquor is not to be supplied to Maoris.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section forty-three of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, it is enacted that the Governor may proclaim any part or parts of New Zealand as districts in which the provisions of the said section shall apply, and may at any time revoke or vary such Proclamation:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and six, and gazetted on the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and six, the parts of New Zealand known as the Mangonui Maori Council District, the Hokianga Maori Council District, the Tokerau Maori Council District, the Whangarei Maori Council District, and the Wairoa Maori Council District were defined as districts within which liquor shall not be supplied to Maoris for consumption off the premises: And whereas by subsection six of the said section forty-three it is provided that the said districts shall be deemed to have been proclaimed under that section, and that the provisions of that section shall apply thereto accordingly:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council in so far as it relates to the Hokianga Maori Council District and the Tokerau Maori Council District, and to re-define the said districts:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by section forty-three of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, as aforesaid, do hereby revoke the Order in Council of the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and six, in so far as it relates to those parts of New Zealand known as the Hokianga Maori Council District and the Tokerau Maori Council District, and in lieu thereof do hereby proclaim those parts of New Zealand known as the Hokianga Maori Council District and the Pewhairangi Maori Council District respectively, the boundaries of which are set out in the Schedule hereto, to be districts wherein the said section forty-three of the Licensing Amendment Act, 1910, shall apply.
