

employed at the time of his dismissal, suspension, or transfer, and shall forward to him such copy (or, as the case may be, the appellant's copy of the notice of appeal), with instructions to convene the Court for the purposes of the appeal.

(3.) WITNESSES.

9. (a.) A summons to a witness shall be in duplicate, in the form numbered 5 in the Schedule hereto. Both duplicates shall be signed by a member of the Court, who shall retain one, and issue the other for service by the applicant. Service shall be effected by delivering a copy to the witness, and at the same time producing the original for his inspection if so desired.

(b.) Any number of witnesses may be included in one summons, but the copy served need only contain the name of the witness upon whom it is served.

10. Witnesses' expenses shall be according to the scale for the time being in force in the Magistrate's Court.

11. If any witness fails to attend in terms of a summons under these regulations he shall be liable to a penalty of £10.

(4.) PROCEEDINGS BEFORE COURT OF APPEAL.

12. The respondent Board shall state its case, and adduce its evidence in support thereof. When all its evidence has been called its case shall be closed.

13. When the respondent Board has closed its case the appellant shall state his case, and adduce his evidence in support thereof. When all his evidence (if any) has been called his case shall be closed.

14. Neither party shall address the Court after his evidence has been called or his case closed.

15. The foregoing provisions notwithstanding, the Court may, on the hearing of any case on appeal, take such additional evidence, either by way of rebuttal or otherwise, as it may consider necessary, and may direct such notice to be served by either of the parties on the other as the nature of such evidence may require.

(5.) GENERAL.

16. The Court shall hear ~~and determine~~ the appeal at such convenient place and time as the Chairman appoints in that behalf, the time being not later than fourteen days after the receipt by him of the Minister's instructions as aforesaid.

17. At least three days' previous notice of such place and time shall be given to the parties and also to the members of the Court by the Chairman.

18. Where an appeal is duly lodged by a teacher against the decision of a Board to transfer him from one school to another, the decision of the Board shall not take effect before the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt by the appellant teacher of the decision of the Court of Appeal confirming the proposed transfer.

19. The costs awarded by the Court may include payments by way of honorarium to the members of the Court other than the Chairman, at a rate not exceeding two pounds for each such member for each day of hearing.

20. The Court—

(a.) May waive any technical error or defect in the proceedings:

(b.) May adjourn its sittings from time to time:

(c.) Shall take evidence on oath, to be administered by any member of the Court:

(d.) Shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence:

(e.) Shall conduct its proceedings in public or (with the consent of both parties) in private:

(f.) Shall hear and determine the appeal according to equity and good conscience.

21. Subject to the said Act and these regulations, the Court may regulate its own procedure.
