

6. Any officer and any Collector of Customs may take possession of any passport in the possession of any person entering New Zealand.

7. (1.) An alien, being the master or a member of the crew of a vessel arriving at any port in New Zealand after the 1st day of October, 1916, shall not land at that port unless he has in his possession a passport issued to him not more than two years before his arrival.

(2.) Where an alien is under the provisions of this regulation prohibited from landing at any port the Collector of Customs may nevertheless grant him temporary permission to land for such purposes and subject to such conditions as the Collector thinks fit, and if he fails to comply with any of those conditions he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

(3.) Where an alien who is not in possession of any such passport is a member of the crew of any such vessel the master shall, as soon as may be after the arrival of the vessel at any port, give written notice of the presence of that alien on board the vessel to the Collector of Customs, and that alien shall leave New Zealand with that vessel.

(4.) Nothing in this regulation shall apply to any master or member of the crew whose home is in New Zealand.

8. These regulations shall be read together with and deemed part of the War Regulations of the 10th day of November, 1914.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Additional Regulations under Section 44 of the Finance Act, 1916.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-first day of August, 1916.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

I, ARTHUR WILLIAM DE BRITO SAVILE, Earl of Liverpool, Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, do hereby, in pursuance of section forty-four of the Finance Act, 1916, make the following additional regulations under that Act.

REGULATIONS.

1. THE total amount of all bank-notes issued or reissued in New Zealand (whether before or after the date of these regulations) by any bank empowered by law to issue bank-notes in New Zealand, and for the time being in circulation, shall at no time exceed the limit of the note-issue of that bank as determined by these regulations; and the limit of note-issue as so determined shall, so long as these regulations remain in force, be deemed to be substituted for any other limit imposed upon the issue or reissue of the notes of that bank by any Act or by the charter of that bank as defined by the Banking Act, 1908.

2. Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding regulation, the limit of the note-issue of any bank shall be the total amount of all coin, bullion, and public securities held by that bank in New Zealand.

3. If the Minister of Finance is satisfied with respect to any bank that public securities held by the bank in the United Kingdom have been duly hypothecated to the Crown by way of a first charge to secure repayment of all moneys which may become payable by the Crown under the Banking Amendment Act, 1914, in respect of notes of that bank, the Minister of Finance may by warrant extend the limit of the note-issue of that bank to the same amount as if the public securities so hypothecated were held by the bank within New Zealand.

4. Any such warrant may be at any time revoked if the Minister of Finance is satisfied that the notes issued or reissued by the bank in New Zealand and then in circulation do not exceed
