

Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, do by this notice hereby prohibit the use of the word "Anzac" in connection with any trade or business.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-ninth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

ROBERT McNAB,
Minister of Justice.

NOTE.—The following is section 33 of the War Legislation Amendment Act, 1916, referred to:—

POLICE OFFENCES AMENDMENT.

33. (1.) The Governor may from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, prohibit the use in connection with any trade or business of any word having reference in any way to the present war, on the ground that the use of the said word for any such purpose may be offensive to public sentiment.

(2.) The prohibition of the use of any word under this section shall be deemed to include the prohibition of the use of any abbreviation or variation of such word, and also the use of any other word that may incorporate such word, variation, or abbreviation.

(3.) Every person who acts in contravention of a notice under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(4.) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the proprietor of any trade-mark registered before the publication of a notice under this section, and containing any word the use of which for the purposes of any trade or business is prohibited or deemed to be prohibited by such notice, to continue to use such trade-mark for a period not exceeding three months after the issue of that notice.

(5.) While any notice under this section remains in force the Registrar of Patents, Designs, and Trade-marks shall refuse to accept any application for the registration of a trade-mark, including any word prohibited or deemed to be prohibited by such notice; and on the expiration of three months after the issue of any such notice the Registrar shall, if such notice remains in force, cancel the registration of any trade-mark that includes any such word, or may modify any such trade-mark by the exclusion of any such word.

(6.) Proceedings under this section shall not be instituted, except with the previous consent of the Attorney-General.
