WELLINGTON, MONDAY, JULY 9, 1917.

Extension of certain War Regulations to Cook Islands.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this ninth day of July, 1917.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section six of the War Regulations Amendment Act, 1916, it is provided that the War Regulations Act, 1914, and all amendments thereof, shall be in force in the Cook Islands, and that regulations made under those Acts, whether before or after the passing of the War Regulations Amendment Act, 1916, shall not be in force in the Cook Islands except so far as expressly extended thereto: And whereas it is expedient to extend certain War Regulations to the Cook Islands:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Acts, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby extend the War Regulations set out in the Schedule hereto to the Cook Islands; and doth hereby declare that the said War Regulations shall come into force therein on the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

SCHEDULE.

WAR REGULATIONS EXTENDED TO COOK ISLANDS.

1. CLAUSE 4 of the War Regulations of the 19th July, 1915, to wit,—

“ 4. (1.) No person shall publish, or cause or permit to be published, any statement or matter likely to interfere with the recruiting, training, discipline, or administration of His Majesty's Forces, whether by sea or land, or with the effective conduct of the military or naval operations of His Majesty or his Allies in the present war, or likely to be injurious to the public safety in the present war, or to prejudice His Majesty's relations with foreign Powers, or any false reports relative to the present war and likely to cause alarm, or any statement or matter which in any manner indicates disloyalty or disaffection in respect to the present war.

“ (2.) In this regulation the term ‘publish’ means to make known either to individuals or to the public at large; and the term ‘His Majesty's Forces’ includes the New Zealand and all other military or naval Forces raised by the Government of any British possession.”

2. Clause 3 of the War Regulations of the 20th September, 1915, to wit,—

“ 3. No person shall by words, writing, or otherwise incite, encourage, advise, or advocate violence, lawlessness, or disorder, or express any seditious intention.”

3. Clause 4 of the War Regulations of the 20th September, 1915, to wit,—

“4. No person shall print, publish, sell, distribute, have in his possession for sale or distribution, or bring or cause to be brought or sent into New Zealand any document which incites, encourages, advises, or advocates violence, lawlessness, or disorder, or expresses any seditious intention.”

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Amended Regulations made under the Military Service Act, 1916.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this ninth day of July, 1917.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

I, ARTHUR WILLIAM DE BRITO SAVILE, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, do hereby, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon me by the Military Service Act, 1916, and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, amend the regulations for the Home Service Branch, New Zealand Expeditionary Force, made on the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-first day of June of the same year, and declare that the amendments hereby made shall have effect as from the publication thereof in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

HOME SERVICE BRANCH, NEW ZEALAND EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

Actual Home Service.—Paragraph 5 is hereby cancelled, and the following substituted :—

“Until the Minister of Defence shall otherwise direct, soldiers of the Home Service Branch who are required for actual home service shall be called up from those only who volunteer for such actual home service, but any person who, being liable for service under the Military Service Act, 1916, has committed an offence under the said Act, or the Army Act, and who may be subsequently transferred from the Foreign Service Branch to the Home Service Branch of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, under paragraph 2 (b) of these regulations, may be compulsorily employed on actual home service.

“Volunteers belonging to such trades or occupations as may from time to time be specified by the Minister of Defence shall not be accepted for actual home service.”

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Amending Order in Council fixing Maximum Price of Milk within the Borough of Wanganui and the Town Districts of Gonville and Castlecliff.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this ninth day of July, 1917.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made under the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, on the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, the maximum price of milk within the Borough of Wanganui and the town districts of Gonville and Castlecliff was fixed and determined: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order in Council in manner as hereinafter appears:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority so conferred upon him by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby amend clause 1 of the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, by omitting the words “shall be 11d. per gallon when sold and delivered on the usual trade terms,” and inserting in lieu thereof the words “shall be 11d. per gallon when sold and delivered within the said district, or 10d. per gallon when sold and delivered at the dairy farm, on the usual trade terms.”

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
