WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1917.

Military Service Act, 1916.—Warrant constituting Additional Military Service Boards, and appointing the Members thereof.

LIVERPOOL, Governor.

I, ARTHUR WILLIAM DE BRITO SAVILE, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon me in that behalf by section nineteen of the Military Service Act, 1916, do hereby constitute and establish for the purposes of that Act six additional Military Service Boards, which shall be in addition to the four Military Service Boards already constituted on the twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and shall be known and distinguished respectively as the Second Auckland Military Service Board, the Second Wellington Military Service Board, the Third Wellington Military Service Board, the Second Canterbury Military Service Board, the Third Canterbury Military Service Board, and the Second Otago Military Service Board.

And, in pursuance of the like authority, I do hereby appoint as the members of the Second Auckland Military Service Board the following persons, to hold office during my pleasure, to wit:—

FREDERICK EARL, K.C., of Auckland (who shall be Chairman of the said Board);

FRANK FRANKLAND HOCKLEY, of Parawera, Kihikihi; and ARTHUR ROSSER, of Auckland.

And, in pursuance of the like authority, I do hereby appoint as the members of the Second Wellington Military Service Board the following persons, to hold office during my pleasure, to wit:—

JOSEPH WILLIAM POYNTON, of Palmerston North, Stipendiary Magistrate (who shall be Chairman of the said Board);

THOMAS ANDERSON BAMBER, of Wanganui; and
 FREDERICK CURTICE, of Wellington.
