

Notice of Intention to change the Purpose of Portion of a Quarantine Reserve in Waimea Survey District, Nelson Land District.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto forms portion of a reserve heretofore duly set apart for quarantine purposes, being a purpose within Class II of the Second Schedule to the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908:

And whereas it is expedient that the purpose of the portion of the said reserve should be changed to a reserve for a rifle range:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908, aforesaid, declare my intention to change the purpose of the portion of the reserve described in the Schedule hereto from quarantine purposes to a reserve for a rifle range.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that area in the Nelson Land District, containing by admeasurement 48 acres, more or less, and being part of Section 34 of Square 1 in Block III, Waimea Survey District. Bounded towards the north-west by high-water mark along the shore of Tasman Bay; towards the north-east generally by a road forming the north-west boundary of the Public Hospital Reserve (being part of Section 34), by the said reserve, and by a proposed road leading thereto through the said Section 34; towards the south-east by a road forming the north-west boundary of Section 86; and towards the south generally by high-water mark along the shore of an inlet from the estuary of the Waimea River. As the same is delineated on the plan marked L. and S. 6/11/3, deposited in the Head Office, Department of Lands and Survey, at Wellington, and thereon coloured red and bordered green.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this tenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

F. H. D. BELL,
For Minister of Lands.

Trustees for the Torere Public Cemetery appointed.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by the fourth section of the Cemeteries Act, 1908, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby appoint to be trustees for the maintenance and care of the Torere Public Cemetery, in the places of Alfred Collard, deceased, and Alfred James Isdale, who has left the district, to act in conjunction with Robert Campbell, George James Allen, and Montague Goldsbury, previously appointed.

WILLIAM PRIME and

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this eighteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

Appointing Public Trustee to be Administrator of an Estate under the Reformatory Institutions Act, 1909.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section thirty-seven of the Reformatory Institutions Act, 1909, it is enacted that when an order has been made against any person (whether before or after the commencement of that Act) for her detention in an institution, the Public Trustee may be appointed as the administrator or interim curator of her estate, in accordance with Part III of the Prisons Act, 1908, and all the provisions of sections fifty-five to seventy-five of that Act shall, so long as the order of detention remains in force, apply to that person accordingly in the same manner in which those provisions apply to persons imprisoned:

And whereas on the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, an order was made by the Stipendiary Magistrate at Christchurch for the detention of Ethel Maud Hampton, of Ashburton, in the certified Inebriates Home situate at Pakatoa Island:

And whereas it is expedient to appoint the Public Trustee as the administrator of the estate of the said Ethel Maud Hampton:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the before-mentioned powers and authorities, doth hereby appoint to be the administrator of the estate of the said Ethel Maud Hampton during the Governor-General's pleasure.

THE PUBLIC TRUSTEE

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, at Wellington, this thirteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

J. A. HANAN,
Minister of Justice.
