

case of the master or a member of the crew of a vessel, to the Registration Officer at the port where that vessel may be.

2. Every certificate of registration under the said Act shall be in the form R.A.-2 in the Schedule hereto.

3. Every Registration Officer shall keep, in the form R.A.-3 in the Schedule hereto, a record of applications for registration received and certificates of registration issued by him.

4. Every notice by an alien of the change of his place of abode shall be in the form R.A.-4 in the Schedule hereto.

5. The Register of Aliens shall be compiled and kept in accordance with the card system, the cards to be arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames of the aliens, and to be kept in cabinets containing such number of boxes as the Government Statistician from time to time thinks necessary. The boxes shall be numbered consecutively. The cards shall consist of the duplicates of the applications by aliens for registration.

6. Every alien shall give the particulars relating to his personal description set out in the form of application for registration.

7. Every alien who is unable to write shall, in the presence of the registration officer, place an impression of his left thumb on both forms of his application for registration, and on his certificate of registration, in the space provided for that purpose.

8. Every alien leaving New Zealand shall deliver up his certificate of registration to an officer authorized to issue permits to leave New Zealand, or to a Registration Officer, who shall forward the same forthwith to the Government Statistician.

9. The following aliens are hereby exempted from the operation of the said Act and these regulations:—

- (a.) All Consuls representing any foreign country, and their staffs, in so far as the staffs comprise persons who have been sent by the Government of the foreign country for employment on the staff of the consulate; provided that nothing herein contained shall serve to exempt from the operation of the said Act or these regulations any Consul of any country with which His Majesty is at any time at war, or any member of his staff:
- (b.) Any person or the member of any Commission coming to New Zealand for any purpose on behalf of the Government of a foreign country, where such person or Commission is duly recommended to the good offices of the Government of New Zealand by such foreign Government:
- (c.) Any alien who arrives in New Zealand as the master or a member of the crew of any oversea vessel, provided that he leaves New Zealand with that vessel.
