

- (a.) The appointment shall be deemed to commence from any date fixed by the Board following the occurrence of the vacancy.
- (b.) From the date of such appointment the person appointed shall be deemed to be or to have been on leave of absence from such position.
- (c.) Any teacher so appointed shall be entitled to the same rights and be subject to the same liabilities as if his appointment had been made in the ordinary course under any provision of the Education Act, 1914.

4. For the purpose of determining the rate of salary or allowance to be paid to any teacher temporarily appointed or transferred under these regulations, the provisions of subclause (2) of clause 1 of the Regulations relating to the Grading of Public Schools, Staffs, and Salaries of Teachers made by Order in Council dated the 21st December, 1914, shall not apply, and the salary or allowance in such case otherwise determined shall for the purposes of subclauses (4) and (5) of clause 2 hereof be deemed to be the salary payable under the Education Act, 1914.

5. During the currency of these regulations the second proviso to subclause (1) of clause 2 and clause 8 (so far as it relates to the reduction in the staff of a school) of the regulations referred to in the last preceding clause shall be suspended.

6. (1.) On the 1st January in each year the number of teachers and pupil-teachers in any school other than a district high school or in the primary department of any district high school shall, subject to any modification necessary under the proviso hereto, be determined by the yearly average attendance for the year immediately preceding:

Provided that if at the beginning of any quarter it appears that the average attendance in any such school or department has decreased so that—

- (a.) The mean of the average attendance for the three quarters immediately preceding; or
- (b.) The mean of the average attendance for the two quarters immediately preceding; or
- (c.) The average attendance for the quarter immediately preceding has fallen as low as indicated in columns (2), (3), and (4) respectively of Table C hereto, then the staff shall be reduced to that prescribed for a school having the average attendance shown in column (5) of that table.
