Additional Regulations under the War Regulations Act, 1914.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present :

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the War Regulations Act, 1914, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following additional regulations under that Act.

REGULATIONS.

1. (1.) EVERY British sea-going ship of 1,600 tons gross tonnage or upwards registered in New Zealand, in respect of which a license to install wireless-telegraph apparatus is or has been granted by the Minister of Telegraphs, shall be provided with a wireless-telegraph installation, and shall maintain a wireless-telegraph service, and shall be provided with two certified operators, together with suitable accommodation for the apparatus and operators.

(2.) Application to the Minister of Telegraphs, in a form prescribed by him for the grant of such a license under section 3 of the Post and Telegraph Amendment Act, 1911, shall, unless a license has before the making of this regulation been granted in respect of any such ship, be made by the owner on or before the 20th day of August, 1918.

(3.) The Minister of Telegraphs shall, as and when wireless-telegraph apparatus and the services of operators become available for the purpose, cause licenses to be issued in respect of such of those ships as in the opinion of a Naval Authority should in the national interests be fitted with such apparatus, and each license shall specify the date as from which
