

were licensed to use and occupy a part of the foreshore and land below low-water mark at Putiki Bay, Waiheke Island, as shown on plan marked M.D. 4259, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington, in order to erect thereon a wharf as shown on the plan so deposited as aforesaid, for a period of fourteen years computed from the twelfth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen:

And whereas it is considered expedient to prescribe dues to be charged and taken for the use of the said wharf:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the Harbours Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby prescribe that the dues set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be taken and received by the licensees for the use of the said wharf.

SCHEDULE.

SHIPPING WHARFAGE.

EVERY person who shall use the said wharf with any vessel shall pay for the use thereof as follows, that is to say:—

For every vessel a sum of 1d. per ton on the gross tonnage of such vessel per day for each day or part of a day a vessel shall occupy a berth alongside any vessel laying at the said wharf, or shall lay at the said wharf undergoing repairs or fitting out only, or shall lay off the said wharf with a line attached thereto.

GOODS WHARFAGE.

Every person who shall use the said wharf for landing or shipping any goods shall, before using same, pay dues as follows, that is to say:—

1. For all goods landed on the said wharf, a rate of 2s. 6d. per ton weight or measurement, at the option of the licensees.

2. For every head of cattle or horses landed upon or shipped from the said wharf, 2s. 6d. per head.

3. For every yearling or calf so landed upon or shipped from the said wharf, the sum of 1s. per head.

4. For every head of sheep or small cattle so landed upon or shipped from the said wharf, the sum of 6d. per head.

5. If any ship shall use the said wharf for the discharge of any goods or cargo after the usual working-hours or on wharf holidays, such ship shall pay to the licensees for the use of the said wharf a charge at the rate of 1s. per ton on all goods or cargo so discharged from such ship.

This charge will only be made when, in the opinion of the wharfinger, it is necessary to employ labour to stack or remove cargo in sheds in consequence of the discharge of such goods or cargo as aforesaid.

PASSENGERS.

For every passenger who shall land on or be shipped from the said wharf, the sum of 1s.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

Prohibiting the Exportation of Cotton Piecegoods suited for Use as Meat-wraps, Cheese-cloths, or Similar Articles.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, prohibit the exportation of any goods the prohibition of the exportation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest:

And whereas in the opinion of the Governor-General it is necessary in the public interest that the exportation of cotton piecegoods suited for use as meat-wraps, cheese-cloths, or similar articles should be prohibited to the extent and in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon him by section forty-seven of the Customs Act, 1913, and section twenty-four of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby prohibit the exportation of cotton piecegoods suited for use as meat-wraps, cheese-cloths, and similar articles from the said Dominion, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations as to Health Patrols under the Social Hygiene Act, 1917.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section twelve of the Social Hygiene Act, 1917, provision is made for the appointment by the Minister of Public Health of Health Patrols for the protection of the health and morality of young persons:

And whereas by section fifteen of the said Act it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations, inter alia, for regulating and prescribing the appointment and duties of persons appointed as Health Patrols under the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby, in pursuance of the power conferred on him as aforesaid, make the following regulations under that Act accordingly.

REGULATIONS.

HEALTH PATROLS.

1. (1.) APPLICATIONS for appointment as a Health Patrol may be made in writing to the Chief Health Officer at Wellington.

(2.) Every such application shall be accompanied by not less than two recommendations or testimonials as to character and fitness for the duties of a Health Patrol, of which at least one shall be by a minister of religion, or by some society established for or engaged in social work (whether in New Zealand or elsewhere).

(3.) No person under the age of forty years shall be appointed as a Health Patrol.

2. Every person appointed as a Health Patrol shall, subject to the general authority of the Minister, be under the supervision and direction of a District Health Officer under the Public Health Act, 1908, and shall from time to time, as required, furnish reports as to their duties to the District Health Officer.

3. Every person appointed as a Health Patrol under these regulations shall hold office during the pleasure of the Minister.

4. No person appointed as a Health Patrol shall in his or her official capacity commence any proceedings in any Court with respect to any offence committed against the Social Hygiene Act, 1917, or any other Act.

5. In particular, but without limiting the generality of the provisions in that behalf of the Social Hygiene Act, it shall be the duty of Health Patrols, so far as in their discretion they think fit—

(a.) To advise and warn young persons who may during the evening or night be found in any street, domain, park, or other public place, or frequenting any place of public entertainment, without adequate supervision and protection;

(b.) To advise the parents and guardians of such young persons of the dangers incident to allowing them to frequent such places as aforesaid without adequate supervision and protection; and

(c.) To make inquiry and to report as to cases where children are alleged to be living in houses of ill fame, or in any other place or under conditions in which they may be reasonably believed to be liable to contract any venereal disease.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
