Amending Regulations for the Auditing of Solicitors' Trust Accounts.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, regulations were made under section fourteen of the Law Practitioners Amendment Act, 1913, providing for an annual audit of the trust accounts of every solicitor, and for a report of the results of such audit:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority conferred on him by section fourteen of the Law Practitioners Amendment Act, 1913, doth hereby amend the said regulations of the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, in the manner set forth in the Schedule hereto; and doth declare that this Order in Council shall come into force upon the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

1. EVERY solicitor who after the coming into operation of these regulations makes default for a period of one month in causing his trust account for any year to be audited in pursuance of clause 2 of the aforesaid regulations of the 22nd day of May, 1914, shall be liable to a fine of not less than £50 and not more than £100; and if after the coming into operation of these regulations two or more solicitors in partnership make any such default, each of them shall be severally liable to the like fine.

2. Clauses 22 and 23 of the aforesaid regulations of the 22nd day of May, 1914, shall have no application to any such default as aforesaid, but shall continue to apply to any default for a period of less than one month, and to any default committed before the coming into operation of these present regulations.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Amendments in the Regulations for Junior and Senior National Scholarships.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the Education Act, 1914, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby, in respect of the regulations for Junior and Senior National Scholarships made by Orders in Council of the seventeenth day of May and twentieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, make the amendments shown in the Schedule hereto; and, with the like advice and consent, doth prescribe that this Order shall come into force on the date of the first publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

CLAUSE 29 is hereby amended by adding, after the sentence "The examination in Woodwork, Metalwork, Housecraft (Cookery and Laundry-work), and Dressmaking and Needlecraft will in each case consist of a written examination and a practical test," the following:—

"In addition, every candidate in the subjects of Woodwork and Metalwork is required either to hand to the Supervisor at the examination or to forward to the Director of Education at Wellington by the 30th November a piece of Woodwork (or Metalwork as the case may be) copied from a typical example or designed by him, as a specimen of his work performed under ordinary workshop conditions. The specimen is to be made between the 1st October and the 30th November nearest to the examination, and is to be accompanied by the freehand sketch or the finished drawing from which the piece of work was executed. With the specimen of work there must be sent a certificate signed by the class Instructor and the Director of the school that the work is the candidate's unaided effort, executed without the supervision or direction of the Instructor."

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Consenting to the Raising of Loans by certain Local Authorities.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this thirtieth day of July, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six, subsection one, of the Appropriation Act, 1915, it is provided that, notwithstanding any Act to the contrary, it shall not be lawful or competent for any local authority or for any Harbour Board, during the present war with Germany, to borrow or contract to borrow any money (otherwise than by way of bank overdraft within the limit of its powers, if any, in that behalf), whether from the State Advances Office or from any other source whatever, and whether in pursuance of a special Act or under any other authority whatever, without the precedent consent of the Governor-General in Council:

And whereas application has been made for the consent of the Governor-General in Council to enable the several
