Unclaimed Property.

WHEREAS it was reported to the Public Trustee that Hugh Doherty, formerly of Longburn, in the Provincial District of Wellington, was the owner of personal property in New Zealand, and it was not known whether the said Hugh Doherty was alive or dead or where he was:

And whereas the Public Trustee applied to the Supreme Court for an order under section 87 of the Public Trust Office Act, 1908, in respect of such property; and by an order made in the Supreme Court at Wellington on the 20th day of April, 1918, the Public Trustee was authorized to exercise in respect of such property all or any of the powers specified in the said section 87 as amended by section 36 of the Public Trust Office Amendment Act, 1913:

And whereas such property is situated in the Provincial District of Wellington:

Now, the Public Trustee hereby gives notice that he proposes to exercise in respect of such property the powers conferred on him by the said section 87 of the Public Trust Office Act as amended by the said section 36 of the Public Trust Office Amendment Act, 1913.

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of August, 1918.

R. TRIGGS,
Public Trustee.
