Military Service Act, 1916.—Abolishing certain Military Service Boards and revoking Appointments of Members thereof.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by a Warrant dated the twenty-fourth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, certain additional Military Service Boards were constituted and established: And whereas the services of the Third Wellington Military Service Board and the second Otago Military Service Board are no longer required, and it is expedient to abolish these Boards:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority conferred on me by section nineteen of the Military Service Act, 1916, do hereby abolish the Third Wellington Military Service Board and the Second Otago Military Service Board; and, in pursuance of the like authority, I do hereby revoke the appointments of the members of these Boards.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this nineteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

J. ALLEN,
 Minister of Defence.
