

to their groups or units. Should a question of discipline or efficiency be involved, the case shall immediately be reported to the O.C. District."

6. After paragraph 83 add the following paragraph:—
"83A. A Group or Unit Quartermaster-Sergeant will be liable to be reposted at any time to the N.Z. Army Ordnance Corps should he be found unfitted for the position of Group or Unit Accountant, or should he be reduced in rank on account of misconduct or inefficiency. He will, if so reposted, revert to the ordinary duties of his rank in the N.Z.A.O.C., remaining supernumerary until absorbed into the first vacant appointment."

7. Paragraph 170 is hereby amended by deleting that part of the paragraph following the words "Reserve List" in the third line, and substituting the following:—

"He will hand in his arms, accoutrements, and uniform clothing. Should he change his place of residence to another group or area he may be transferred to the Reserve List of a unit in that group or area."

8. Paragraph 350 is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of the paragraph:—

"The C.O., before sanctioning the issue on loan of any Government property, will comply with paragraph 58 and Section V, Subsection III, N.Z. Ordnance Regulations."

9. After paragraph 350 add the following:—

"350A. Security of Stores.—For each Territorial group or unit store there shall be two keys, one of which shall be known as the duplicate key, which shall be retained in the possession of the Group or Unit Commander, and shall be used by him only in cases of emergency. The other key shall be retained in the possession of the Group or Unit Accountant, who is the person responsible to the Group or Unit Commander for the issue and receipt of clothing, arms, equipment, office furniture, and training and range equipment on issue to groups and units respectively. During the absence of the Group or Unit Accountant no transaction shall be permitted except under the provisions laid down in paragraph 442 of these regulations."

10. Paragraph 442 is amended by adding the following at the end of the paragraph:—

"Application for leave of absence by Group or Unit Accountants will, in the first instance, be submitted to the Group or Unit Commander under whom the Accountant is immediately serving. If recommended, the O.C. Group or Unit will endorse the application, stating definitely the arrangements made for the care, custody, and accounting of public property during the absence of the Accountant; the application will then be forwarded to the A.Q.M.G. of the district, who will, previous to recommending leave to the O.C. District, satisfy himself that the arrangements made for the performance of the above duties during the absence of the Accountant are satisfactory."
