Special Powers conferred on District Health Officers under the Public Health Act.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on me by section eighteen of the Public Health Act, 1908, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby confer upon all District Health Officers under that Act power and authority, with the approval of the Minister of Public Health, to prohibit the sale within their districts of all alcoholic liquor for the purpose of more effectually checking or preventing the spread of influenza.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this twenty-first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

G. W. RUSSELL,
Minister of Public Health.
