WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1918.

Maximum Prices of Bacon and Ham.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this eighteenth day of February, 1918.

Present:

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and its amendments, the Governor-General is empowered in time of war to fix the maximum price in New Zealand of any class of goods:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority so conferred upon him, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby fix and determine the maximum price of the goods mentioned in the Schedule hereto, in accordance with the provisions of that Schedule.

SCHEDULE.

1. THE maximum price of bacon and ham when sold by the manufacturer shall be the standard price thereof on the 1st day of December, 1917—that is to say, in respect of every locality the current price at which on that day goods of the same nature and quality were saleable in that locality when sold in the same quantity and on the same terms as to payment, delivery, and otherwise.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General has it in command from His Majesty the King to publish the following Proclamation for the information of the public.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

RELATING TO TRADING WITH CERTAIN PERSONS OF ENEMY NATIONALITY INTERNED IN NEUTRAL COUNTRIES.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS it is expedient that transactions between British subjects and persons of enemy nationality who have been removed from our Dominions and are interned in neutral countries should be restricted in manner hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, think fit to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The Proclamations for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy shall, as from the date of this Proclamation, apply to any persons of enemy nationality who have been removed from any part of Our Dominions for the purpose of being interned in and are interned in any neutral country, in the same manner as they apply to persons resident or carrying on business in an enemy country.

2. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which may be specially permitted by Our license or by a license given on Our behalf by the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury or the Board of Trade.

3. This Proclamation may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Enemy Subjects interned in Neutral Countries) Proclamation, 1917.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-seventh day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the eighth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

Wellington, 16th February, 1918.
