

delivery, and storage of goods, for which reception, delivery, and storage the Wharfinger may demand, charge, and recover from the person delivering any goods for storage therein, or from the person receiving any goods thereout, the following fees or sums of money, that is to say,—

For the reception, delivery, and storage of any parcel or thing under 100 lb. weight or 2 cub. ft. measurement after the first twenty-four hours shall have elapsed—for each and any period of time not exceeding twenty-four hours, the sum of 2d.

For the reception, delivery, and storage of any parcel or thing (not included in the above) of over 100 lb. weight or over 2 cub. ft. measurement, but under 1,000 lb. weight or 20 cub. ft. measurement after the first twenty-four hours shall have elapsed—for each and any period not exceeding twenty-four hours, the sum of 4d.

For the reception, delivery, and storage of any parcel or thing over 1,000 lb. or 20 cub. ft. measurement after the first period of twenty-four hours shall have elapsed—for each and every period of time not exceeding twenty-four hours, the sum of 6d.

83. All packages, parcels, or things received by the Wharfinger at one and the same time belonging to the same owner or consignee shall be computed and charged for at the one gross measurement or weight which all such parcels or things if put together and so measured or weighed would amount to. Storage shall be charged at the rate of 9d. per ton weight or measurement on 1 ton and over.

84. The Wharfinger shall receive and deliver all goods handed over to his charge, and he shall be responsible for their safety, and such goods shall be stored in such places in the sheds as he may direct.

85. No person shall smoke in or about the goods or other sheds, and no person shall smoke anywhere within limits to be defined by the Wharfinger during the handling of dangerous goods.

86. No person shall be admitted into the goods-sheds or any of them unless such person has legitimate business therein, and no person shall remain therein after being directed by the Wharfinger to withdraw therefrom.

GUNPOWDER AND EXPLOSIVES.

87. "Gunpowder" and "explosives" shall have the meaning assigned to them as set forth in the Explosives and Dangerous Goods Act, 1908.

88. No ship or boat shall convey gunpowder or other explosive substance or compound to or from any ship in the river unless such ship or boat has been specially approved for that purpose by the Harbourmaster or Wharfinger, which approval may at any time be altered, modified, or revoked.

89. No gunpowder or explosives shall be landed on or shipped from the wharf or any landing-place except at a landing-place to be selected by the Harbourmaster or Wharfinger, and subject to such conditions as either of them may impose.

HOURS OF BUSINESS.

90. The ordinary business hours upon the wharf shall be from 8 a.m. till 12 noon, and from 1 p.m. till 5 p.m. (Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excepted), and on Saturday from 8 a.m. till 1 p.m.

91. The following days shall be observed as holidays: (1) New Year's Day, (2) Anniversary Day (29th January), (3) Good Friday, (4) Easter Monday, (5) King's Birthday, (6) Prince of Wales Birthday, (7) Christmas Day, (8) Boxing Day, (9) Labour Day, and such other days as may be declared holidays by the Minister of Public Works, and due notice given by advertisement in a local newspaper at least three days before such special holiday.

GENERAL PENAL CLAUSE.

Any person committing a breach of any of these regulations or any part thereof shall in each case, where no penalty is herein provided, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 for every such offence.

F. D. THOMSON,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council

Regulations for Deer-shooting, Otago.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by the Animals Protection Act, 1908 (hereinafter called "the said Act"), I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulations prescribing the deer-shooting season in the Otago Acclimatization District, and the conditions affecting the same, and also the form of license and the fee payable therefor.

REGULATIONS.

1. RED-DEER stags may be taken or killed within the Otago Acclimatization District from the 1st day of April, 1918, to the 20th day of May, 1918 (both days inclusive).

2. Fallow-deer bucks may be taken or killed within the said district, except in the areas described in the First Schedule hereto, from the 29th day of March, 1918, to the 15th day of May, 1918 (both days inclusive).

3. Licenses to take or kill red-deer stags may be issued by the Chief Postmaster, Dunedin, on the recommendation of the secretary of the Otago Acclimatization Society, on payment of a license fee of £4, and licenses to take or kill fallow-deer bucks may be issued by the said Chief Postmaster, upon a like recommendation, on payment of a license fee of £2; such licenses to be issued in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule hereto, and subject to the said Act and these regulations.

4. No licensee shall take or kill more than four red-deer stags in the Hunter Valley, Dingle, Hawea Flat, or Makarora districts, nor more than three red-deer stags in the Greenvale, Wart Hill, Upper Pomahaka, and Whitecomb districts, nor more than two fallow-deer bucks; and no red-deer stag shall be killed carrying antlers with less than ten points, and no fallow-deer buck shall be killed carrying antlers with less than fourteen points (on a palmate of less than 4 in.). Ball cartridge only to be used.

5. The licensee must give notice to the said Chief Postmaster of the date on which it is his intention to stalk deer; such notice to be posted, or delivered, or telegraphed three clear days before such date.

6. No doe, hind, or fawn shall be taken or killed on any pretext whatever; and no licensee shall allow any dog to accompany either himself or any attendant he may have with him.

7. Nothing herein contained shall extend to authorizing any person to sell any deer or any portion thereof.

8. Regulations as to deer "tags," per New Zealand Gazette No. 40, Vol. I, of 20th May, 1909, page 1408, shall be strictly adhered to by each licensee, who, in addition thereto, shall return all unused "tags" to the secretary of the Otago Acclimatization Society immediately he has finished stalking for the season for which such "tags" have been issued, together with a statement of the number of deer shot.

9. Any person committing a breach of any of these regulations shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding £20.

FIRST SCHEDULE.
