

(e.) In such cases as the Minister may determine, advances may be made on flat mortgage for any period not exceeding ten years. All moneys so advanced shall be secured by way of first mortgage over the land in the form of mortgage set out in the First Schedule to the regulations under the Discharged Soldiers Settlement Act, 1915, made by Order in Council on the 7th March, 1916.

4. All the powers conferred upon His Majesty the King as mortgagee by any mortgage to secure repayment of moneys advanced under these regulations, or pursuant to any law as such mortgagee, may be exercised in his own name by the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the land district within which the land affected by such mortgage is situated, and all actions and proceedings for the recovery of moneys advanced or interest thereon may be taken by the said Commissioner in his own name.

5. Upon the transfer by a mortgagor otherwise than by virtue of a will or intestacy to any person other than a discharged soldier of any title, whether in fee-simple or in leasehold, or of any interest therein, upon the security of which an advance has been made pursuant to these regulations, the balance of principal unpaid in respect of such advance, with interest thereon to the date of payment, shall become immediately due and payable.
