Amendment of the Coal Trade Regulations.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this twenty-first day of May, 1918.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE SIR JAMES ALLEN, K.C.B., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, as amended by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, certain regulations known as the Coal Trade Regulations were made by the Governor-General in Council pursuant to the War Regulations Amendment Act, 1916:

And whereas, having regard to the exigencies of the present war and the conditions created thereby, it is deemed advisable to further amend those regulations in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in pursuance of the War Regulations Amendment Act, 1916, doth hereby make the regulations hereinafter set forth, and doth hereby declare that the regulations hereby made shall be read together with and deemed part of the Coal Trade Regulations hereinbefore referred to.

REGULATIONS.

1. NOTHING in these regulations shall apply—
 - (a.) To any coal delivered pursuant to a permit issued by a Coal Trade Committee or by the Minister in Charge in pursuance of the provisions in that behalf of clause 5 of the amending Coal Trade Regulations of the 28th August, 1917; or
 - (b.) To any coal delivered elsewhere than in an area within which these regulations have been declared by the Minister in Charge, by notice in the Gazette, to be in force.
2. (1.) The Minister in Charge may, by notice in the Gazette, declare that these regulations shall be in force generally throughout New Zealand, or in such area or areas as may be specified in such notice.
 - (2.) Any notice issued by the Minister in Charge under this regulation may be in like manner revoked.
3. Subject to the provisions of clause 1 of these regulations it shall not be lawful for any person to deliver or be concerned in the delivery of any screened coal or of any coal-nuts to any person in any area in which these regulations are in force, unless at the same time he delivers to that person an equal quantity by weight of steam coal or of small coal or coke.

J. F. ANDREWS,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
