Additional Regulations under the War Regulations Act, 1914.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-fourth day of June, 1918.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him by the War Regulations Act, 1914, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations under that Act; and doth hereby declare that the said regulations shall come into operation on the day following the publication thereof in the Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. EVERY person who trespasses on a guarded wharf shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable under the War Regulations Act, 1914, accordingly.
2. In these regulations " guarded wharf " means any wharf or part of a wharf the entrance to which from the landward side is guarded by an armed guard stationed there by a naval or military authority in pursuance of clause 8 of the regulations made on the 10th day of November, 1914, under the War Regulations Act, 1914.
3. For the purposes of these regulations every person shall be deemed to trespass on a guarded wharf who enters upon that wharf, whether from the seaward or the landward side, otherwise than in pursuance of a permit granted by a naval or military authority.
4. An officer or any such armed guard as aforesaid, or any person authorized for that purpose by a naval or military authority, may arrest
