

- (i.) Disobeys the rules of the hospital, convalescent home, or other institution, or the orders of any Medical Superintendent:
- (j.) Is in possession of any liquor on a railway train:
- (k.) Becomes intoxicated:
- (l.) Disobeys any lawful command given by his superior officer:
- (m.) Is guilty of misconduct by means of which he produces or aggravates, or is likely to produce or aggravate, any disease or infirmity, or delays or is likely to delay its cure:
- (n.) Is guilty of any conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

5. For the purpose of the last preceding regulation and without prejudice to the generality thereof a soldier shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence of absence without leave who commits any of the following acts:—

- (a.) Fails to notify his address or any change in his address to the Director of Base Records, or leaves the address recorded on his papers at Base Records without permission from the Director of Base Records:
- (b.) Fails to report at the nearest Defence Office for instructions on the termination of current certificate if prior to the date of termination of current certificate he has not been ordered to attend a Medical Board or has not received any further certificate of status from the Director of Base Records:
- (c.) Fails to attend or report himself when ordered at a Medical Board, at a hospital, convalescent home, or other institution, or at any other place where he may be ordered to be:
- (d.) Fails to appear at the place of parade or rendezvous appointed, or goes from thence without leave from his superior officer.

6. The summary jurisdiction of Commanding Officers is hereby extended so that they are empowered to impose fines not exceeding £2 in dealing summarily with offences under these regulations, and such fines shall be deducted from the pay of the soldier adjudged guilty of any such offence, in addition to any forfeiture of pay which may have been in arrear through the soldier's absence from duty.

7. Nothing in these regulations shall in any manner restrict or take away the liability of a soldier under the Army Act, or under any other regulations under the Defence Act, 1909, save that no soldier shall be punished twice for the same offence.
