

Defining Limits of Whakatane Harbour.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested by the sixth section of the Harbours Act, 1908, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, P.C., G.C.M.G., M.V.O., the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby revoke the existing limits of the Harbour of Whakatane, and do hereby define the limits of the said harbour to be—

All that area in the Bay of Plenty commencing at a point on the sea-coast at ordinary high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty, one nautic mile to the westward of the entrance to the Rangitikei River; thence to the westernmost point of Whale Island; thence by ordinary high-water mark along the southern coastline of the said island to its easternmost point; thence along the tangent to an arc of a circle described with a radius of three nautic miles, the centre of which is at the middle of the entrance to the said river; thence by the said arc to a point on the sea-coast at ordinary high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty three nautic miles to the south and east of the entrance to the said river; thence north and westerly by ordinary high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty along the sea-coast to the right bank of the said river; thence by ordinary high-water mark of the said river to the outer face of the downstream side of the reinforced-concrete bridge over the said river (on the main road between Whakatane and Te Teko); thence by the said bridge to the left bank of the said river; thence along the left bank by ordinary high-water mark of the said river, and the sea-coast by ordinary high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty, to the right bank of the said Rangitikei River; thence by ordinary high-water mark of the said river to the bridge over the said Rangitikei River on the main road from Matata to Whakatane; thence by the said bridge to the left bank of the said Rangitikei River; thence along the left bank by ordinary high-water mark of the said river, and the sea-coast by ordinary high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty to the point of commencement; the hereinbefore-mentioned line of ordinary high-water mark shall be deemed to cross the mouths of any tributaries of the said Whakatane River. As the same is delineated on the plan marked M.D. 5016, and thereon bordered red, and deposited in the office of the Marine Department at Wellington.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this twenty-fourth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

THOMAS M. WILFORD,
Minister of Marine.
