

duty, shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress into, through, and out of the said boat-shed without payment.

5. The licensee shall maintain the above-mentioned boat-shed in good order and repair.

6. Any person authorized by the Minister may at all reasonable times enter upon the said boat-shed and view the state of repair thereof; and upon such Minister leaving at or posting to the last known address of the licensee in New Zealand a notice in writing of any defect or want of repair in such boat-shed, requiring him, within a reasonable time, to be therein prescribed, to repair the same, he shall with all convenient speed cause such defect to be removed or such repairs to be made.

7. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the licensee to do or cause to be done anything repugnant to or inconsistent with any law relating to the Customs, or any regulations of the Minister of Customs, or with any provisions of the Harbours Act, 1908, or its amendments, or any regulations made thereunder, and that are now or may hereafter be in force.

8. The rights, powers, and privileges conferred by or under this Order in Council shall continue to be in force for fourteen years from the date hereof, unless in the meantime such rights, powers, and privileges shall be altered, modified, or revoked by competent authority; and the licensee shall not assign, charge, or part with any such right, power, or privilege without the previous written consent of the Minister first obtained.

9. The said rights, powers, and privileges may be at any time resumed by the Governor-General, without payment of any compensation whatever, on giving to the licensee six calendar months' previous notice in writing. Any such notice shall be sufficient if given by the Minister, and delivered at or posted to the last known address of the licensee in New Zealand.

10. The licensee shall be liable for any injury which the said boat-shed may cause any vessel or boat to sustain through any default or neglect on his part.

11. In case the licensee shall—

- (1.) Commit or suffer a breach of the conditions hereinbefore set forth, or any of them;
- (2.) Cease to use or occupy the said boat-shed for a period of thirty days;
- (3.) Become bankrupt, or be in any manner brought under the operation of any law for the time being in force relating to bankruptcy; or
- (4.) Fail to pay the sums specified in clause 3 of these conditions—

then and in any of the said cases this Order in Council, and every license, right, power, or privilege, may be revoked and determined by the Governor-General in Council without any notice to the licensee or other proceeding whatsoever; and publication in the New Zealand Gazette of an Order in Council containing such revocation shall be sufficient notice to the licensee, and to all persons concerned or interested, that this Order in Council, and the license, rights, and privileges thereby granted and conferred, have been revoked and determined.

12. The erection of the boat-shed shall be sufficient evidence of the acceptance by the licensee of the terms and conditions of this Order in Council.

Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations for Netting and Taking Trout in Lake Hawea, Otago Acclimatization District.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of September, 1919.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council made under the Fisheries Act, 1908, dated the seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 1, of the seventh day of the same month, regulations were made for netting and fishing for trout in Lake Hawea :

And whereas by Order in Council dated the fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 22, of the fourteenth day of the same month, the said regulations were amended :

And whereas it is desirable to further amend the said regulations :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon him by the Fisheries

Act, 1908, and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in that behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby revoke clauses one and six of the said regulations of the seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and doth make the following regulations in substitution thereof.

REGULATIONS.

1. The season for netting and fishing with rod and line for trout shall extend from the 1st day of November in any one year to the 30th day of April in the following year, both days inclusive.

6. Any person holding a trout-fishing license under the trout-fishing regulations for the Otago Acclimatization District may fish with rod and line in Lake Hawea and the streams flowing thereinto, anything contained in these regulations to the contrary notwithstanding; and any bona fide resident of Lake Hawea may fish with rod and line at a fee of 5s. for the season.

Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulations under the Stock Act, 1908, for the Prevention of the Spread of Ticks (Ixodidae) among Cattle.—Notice No. 1977.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of September, 1919.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the Stock Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations for the purpose of the eradication and prevention of the spread of the disease known as the infestation of stock by ticks of the genus Ixodidae; and doth hereby declare that the said regulations shall come into force on the date of the publication thereof in the Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. For the purposes of these regulations "cattle-tick" means any parasite of the genus Ixodidae; and does not include the parasite known as the sheep-tick (Melophagus ovinus).

2. The removal of stock from land on which cattle-ticks are known to exist is hereby prohibited, unless such removal takes place in accordance with the conditions hereinafter prescribed.

3. Any person finding cattle-ticks present on stock in his possession or under his charge shall, within twenty-four hours, notify the fact to the Inspector of Stock for the district in which the animals are located.

4. All stock harbouring cattle-ticks shall be so treated as to ensure the complete destruction of all cattle-ticks upon them, such treatment to be either—

- (a.) Dipping in an approved cattle-tick-destroying solution;
- or
- (b.) Some other effective method authorized by the Inspector.

After treatment as aforesaid such stock shall not be removed to any other place until they have been examined by an Inspector and declared by him to be free from living cattle-ticks.

5. Notice of intention to remove stock from any land on which cattle-ticks are known to exist must be given to the Inspector at least seven clear days before removal. Stock so intended for removal must be dipped or otherwise effectively treated as authorized by the Inspector within forty-eight hours before removal, and shall not afterwards be placed in any infected paddock or enclosure or allowed to come in contact with any diseased or infected stock.

6. If any stock affected with cattle-ticks are found in any pound or in any yard or yards other than for immediate slaughter, or on any land or other place at which stock are offered for sale or exhibition, the owner exposing such stock so affected shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £20 for every head of the said stock :

Provided that if the Inspector is satisfied that such stock are intended for immediate slaughter he may authorize their
