LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington this seventeenth day of November, 1919.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty-six of the Customs Act, 1913, as extended by section two of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Amendment Act, 1915, it is enacted that the Governor-General may by Order in Council prohibit the importation into New Zealand of any goods the prohibition of the importation of which is in his opinion necessary in the public interest:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred on him as aforesaid, did prohibit, to the extent appearing in the said Order in Council, the importation of goods manufactured or produced in or exported from enemy territory as therein defined, including territory then in the occupation of the enemy:

And whereas, in the opinion of the Governor-General, it is necessary in the public interest that the said Order in Council should be revoked, so far as it affects territory then in the occupation of the enemy:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority conferred upon him by the Acts aforesaid, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby revoke the hereinbefore-recited Order in Council of the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and doth hereby prohibit the importation into New Zealand, save with the consent of the Minister of Customs, of any goods which, whether before or after the fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, have been manufactured or produced in, or
