SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR THE MILITARY FORCES OF NEW ZEALAND, 1913.

SECTION IV.

(1.) AFTER paragraph 155 add the following:—

Orderlies to the Governor-General.

155A. Warrant officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of the Royal New Zealand Artillery, and warrant officers and non-commissioned officers of the New Zealand Permanent Staff, to the total number of two, may be seconded for service with the Governor-General of New Zealand for a period of four years.

155B. While employed at Government House, non-commissioned officers and men will, if so recommended, and if not already holding such rank, be granted the temporary rank of Staff Sergeant-Major, and on completion of their period of engagement with the Governor-General will revert to their proper status in their regiment, their promotion and seniority in which will not in any way have been prejudiced by their being seconded for service as in paragraph 155A.

155C. The pay of warrant officers and non-commissioned officers employed at Government House will be as laid down in Financial Instructions and Allowance Regulations for the New Zealand Permanent Staff.
