

Proclaiming Native Land to be Crown Land, and revoking a Previous Proclamation under Section 14 of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section fourteen of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914, it is provided, inter alia, that on being satisfied that the purchase of any Native land has been duly completed by or on behalf of the Crown under the authority of the said Act the Governor-General may issue a Proclamation that such land has become Crown land:

And whereas it is further provided that any such Proclamation made in error may be at any time amended or revoked by the Governor-General:

And whereas the purchase of the Native land set out in the second part of the Schedule hereto has been duly completed by or on behalf of the Crown under the authority of the said Act:

And whereas the Proclamation referred to in the first part of the Schedule hereto was made in error as to part:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by section fourteen of the Native Land Amendment Act, 1914, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby revoke the Proclamation referred to in the first part of the Schedule hereto, and in its stead do hereby proclaim the land mentioned in the second part of the said Schedule to be Crown Land.
