

Declaring a Portion of Railway Reserve at Springfield to be Crown Land.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by section five of the Public Works Amendment Act, 1909, it is provided that in the case of any land taken, purchased, or acquired for a Government work, and not required for that purpose, the Governor-General may, on recommendation by the Minister, by Proclamation declare such land to be Crown land subject to the Land Act, 1908, and thereupon the land may be administered and disposed of under that Act accordingly:

And whereas the land described in the Schedule hereto has been, inter alia, acquired for the purposes of the Rolleston-Springfield Colliery Branch of the Hurunui-Waitaki Railway by a Proclamation dated the ninth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 107, of the fourteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two: And whereas the said land is not now required for the purposes of the Rolleston-Springfield Colliery Branch of the Hurunui-Waitaki Railway, and the Minister has recommended that this Proclamation should be issued declaring such land to be Crown land:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on me by section five of the Public Works Amendment Act, 1909, and of every other power and authority in anywise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare the land described in the Schedule hereto to be Crown land subject to the Land Act, 1908.
