WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1919.

Peace Celebrations.

Office of the Minister of Internal Affairs,
Wellington, 16th July, 1919.

IT is hereby notified for public information that Cabinet has decided that the people of New Zealand should be asked to suspend all functions, activities, and celebrations throughout the Dominion on Peace Celebration Day, Saturday, the 19th July, from 12 noon until five minutes past that hour, in memory of the brave men belonging to the naval and military forces of Great Britain and her Allies (and especially of the New Zealand soldiers), the men of the mercantile marine, and also the noble army of nursing sisters and other heroic and devoted men and women who sacrificed their lives in the cause of freedom, liberty, and justice.

During the period stated all processions should stop, all activities cease, and all transport services, motor-cars, and vehicles cease running. All male persons should uncover their heads, and all persons should stand in reverential silence during that period, as a tribute to the honoured dead.

G. W. RUSSELL,
Minister of Internal Affairs.
