Amending Regulations for the Military Forces of New Zealand re Promotion of Officers in the New Zealand Staff Corps and Royal New Zealand Artillery.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

By his Deputy,

ROBERT STOUT.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority conferred on me by the Defence Act, 1909, and its amendments, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby amend, in the manner and to the extent set forth in the Schedule hereto, the Regulations for the New Zealand Military Forces made on the twenty-second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-seventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen; and I do hereby declare that such amendment shall take effect as from the date of publication thereof in the Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

SECTION IV.

Promotion of Officers of the New Zealand Staff Corps and Royal New Zealand Artillery.

PARAGRAPH 112 is hereby revoked, and the following substituted:—

112. The promotion of officers up to and including the rank of Major in the New Zealand Staff Corps and Royal New Zealand Artillery will be governed by length of service, subject to the following conditions:—

- (i.) Lieutenants will be promoted to the rank of Captain after seven years commissioned service.
- (ii.) Captains will be promoted to the rank of Major after eight years service in the rank of Captain.
- (iii.) To be eligible for promotion, officers of the New Zealand Staff Corps and Royal New Zealand Artillery will require to pass the necessary qualifying examination as laid down in King's Regulations for officers of the regular forces.
- (iv.) Officers will require to be reported upon as in all respects efficient and qualified for promotion, and to be passed as medically fit for service in the field.
- (v.) Officers suffering from physical or medical disability contracted on active service in the field may, on the recommendation of the General Officer Commanding, be promoted notwithstanding such disability.

112A. Promotion to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel and upwards will be governed by establishment, and will be by selection of the General Officer Commanding, subject to the conditions set out in subparagraphs (iii), (iv), and (v) of paragraph 112.

112B. Officers specially recommended for accelerated promotion may, on the recommendation of the General Officer Commanding, be promoted to complete establishment, at any time, to any rank.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, in the presence of—

J. ALLEN,
Minister of Defence.
