Regulations under the Census and Statistics Act, 1910.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

IN pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority conferred upon me by the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulations prescribing the method in which the statistical information relating to fire insurance required to be furnished under section twenty-one (b) of the Census and Statistics Act, 1910, shall be collected by the Statistician.

REGULATIONS.

1. THE general manager for New Zealand of every fire-insurance company shall, upon request, within such time or times as he may be required by the Statistician so to do, furnish annually to the Statistician, or whomever he may appoint, the particulars specified in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, in accordance with the instructions accompanying this form, and shall sign the form and transmit it by post or otherwise to the Statistician or the officer appointed by him.

2. In the preceding regulation—

“The General Manager for New Zealand” shall include the manager, secretary, clerk, or other responsible authority or person for the time being in charge of a fire-insurance company carrying on business in the Dominion ; and, in the event of there being no such general manager for the Dominion, shall include the person or persons in charge for the time being of any branch or branches of such fire-insurance company carrying on business in New Zealand :

“Fire-insurance company” means any association, person, or persons, incorporated or unincorporated, who, within New Zealand, carry on the business of fire insurance either alone or in common with any other business ; and includes companies registered or established out of New Zealand, and mutual associations as well as proprietary.
