

Discharge of Men of the New Zealand Expeditionary Force.

IN pursuance of section 14 of the Expeditionary Forces Act, 1915, I, Major-General Sir Alfred William Robin, K.C.M.G., C.B., Commandant of the New Zealand Defence Forces, do hereby discharge from the New Zealand Expeditionary Force as from the date of this order all members (other than officers and non-commissioned officers) of that Force, with the following exceptions:—

1. Men who have served in that Expeditionary Force beyond the seas.
2. Men who are employed in New Zealand on actual home service.
3. Men whose names appear on the Military Defaulters List as constituted by the Expeditionary Forces Amendment Act, 1918.

Dated this 7th day of August, 1919.

A. W. ROBIN, Major-General,
Commandant.
