

Lands temporarily reserved in the Auckland, Hawke's Bay, Taranaki, and Wellington Land Districts.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-twenty-first section of the Land Act, 1908, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, either by general or particular description, and whether the same has been surveyed or not, reserve from sale temporarily, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the sixty-ninth section of the Land for Settlements Act, 1908, it is further provided that the Governor-General may from time to time, as he thinks fit, set aside reserves for any specified public purpose out of land acquired under the last-mentioned Act, provided that no land so acquired shall be set aside for endowments:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Acts, do hereby temporarily reserve from sale the lands in the Auckland, Hawke's Bay, Taranaki, and Wellington Land Districts described in the Schedules hereunder written, for the purposes in the said Schedule specified at the end of the respective descriptions of the lands so intended to be temporarily reserved.

Regulations under the Public Health Amendment Act, 1918.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section seven of the Public Health Amendment Act, 1918, as amended by section seven of the Public Health Amendment Act, 1919, it is provided that the owner of a building in respect of which the local authority has given notice to the said owner to pull down the same or to make structural alterations or additions thereto, or improvements to the existing conditions thereof, may appeal therefrom to a Magistrate:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section one hundred and eleven of the Public Health Act, 1908, and said section seven of the Public Health Amendment Act, 1918 (as amended as aforesaid), and of every other power and authority enabling me in this behalf, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby make the following regulations, and do declare that these regulations shall come into force on the publication thereof in the Gazette.

REGULATIONS.

1. EVERY appeal under section 7 of the Public Health Amendment Act, 1918, as amended shall be instituted by delivering personally or sending by registered post to the Clerk of the local authority concerned a notice of appeal in the form in the Schedule hereto signed by the appellant or by a solicitor on his behalf.
2. Every such notice of appeal shall be served or posted within ten days after receipt of the notice from the Clerk of the local authority pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of section seven of the Public Health Amendment Act, 1918, as amended as aforesaid.
3. On the receipt of any notice of appeal the Clerk of the local authority shall apply to a Stipendiary Magistrate to hear and determine the appeal.
4. The Magistrate to whom any such appeal is referred shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.
5. Due notice of the time and place of the hearing of any such appeal shall be given by the Magistrate to the appellant and to the Clerk of the local authority.
6. The parties to the appeal shall be entitled to be represented at the hearing by counsel.
7. The Magistrate shall certify in writing to the Clerk of the local authority and to the appellant his determination of any such appeal.
