REGULATIONS.

1. THE limit of the note-issue of every bank empowered by law to issue bank-notes in New Zealand as determined by the aforesaid regulations made on the 21st day of August, 1916, the 3rd day of December, 1917, and the 22nd day of November, 1920, under section 44 of the Finance Act, 1916, is hereby extended by adding to the total amount of all coin, bullion, and public securities held by that bank in New Zealand (including the amount of all war-loan advances as defined in the said regulations) the amount of all wool advances, as hereinafter defined, made by that bank and for the time being and from time to time outstanding.

2. The term "wool advances" means such advances on wool as the bank may make on separate account—

(1.) To producers (with or without Government guarantee); or

(2.) To approved mercantile houses whose ordinary business includes advancing against wool; such advances being against store warrants for the wool, or declarations that the wool is stored to the bank's satisfaction and held on the bank's account, and debited in a special account kept in the books of the bank in that behalf.

3. It shall be the duty of every bank to certify to the Secretary to the Treasury, from time to time as required by him, the total amount of such wool advances made by that bank and for the time being outstanding; and if any bank makes default in so certifying within fourteen days after being so required, the limit of the note-issue of that bank shall, so long as such default continues, be determined in the same manner as if no such wool advances had been made by it.

4. These regulations shall be read together with and deemed part of the aforesaid regulations of the 21st day of August, 1916, the 3rd day of December, 1917, and the 22nd day of November, 1920.
