

Lands permanently reserved.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by the three-hundred-and-twenty-first section of the Land Act, 1908, it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, either by general or particular description, and whether the same has been surveyed or not, reserve from sale temporarily, notwithstanding that the same may be then held under pastoral license, any Crown lands which in his opinion are required for any of the purposes in the said section mentioned:

And whereas by the three-hundred-and-twenty-second section of the said Act it is provided that land temporarily reserved under the said three-hundred-and-twenty-first section may, at the expiration of one month but not later than six months after the publication in the Gazette of notice of such temporary reservation, be permanently reserved, and that notice of such permanent reservation shall be published in the Gazette:

And whereas the lands specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto were, by the Warrants the dates of which are specified in the third column of the said Schedule, and the notifications of which were published in the Gazettes specified in the fourth column, temporarily reserved under the authority of the said Acts for the purposes specified in the second column of the said Schedule:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the said Act, do hereby permanently reserve the lands so temporarily reserved as aforesaid, and enumerated in the first column of the Schedule hereto, for the purposes specified in the second column of the said Schedule, being the same purposes for which the said lands were so temporarily reserved as aforesaid.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General, this 15th day of December, 1920.

D. H. GUTHRIE, Minister of Lands.

Canceling the Reservations over Lands in the Borough of Oamaru, Otago Land District.

JELlicoe, Governor-General.

WHEREAS by section ninety-five of the Reserves and other Lands Disposal and Public Bodies Empowering Act, 1914, the Governor-General is empowered to cancel the existing reservations over the lands described in the First and Second Schedules hereto, and to transfer the land described in the said First Schedule to the Corporation of the Borough of Oamaru in exchange for the land described in the said Second Schedule, the Oamaru Borough Council to pay by way of equality of exchange the sum of two thousand pounds:

And whereas the said sum of two thousand pounds has been paid to the Crown by the Oamaru Borough Council, and it is desirable that the exchange should be completed:

Now, therefore, I, John Rushworth, Viscount Jellicoe, Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by section ninety-five of the Reserves and other Lands Disposal and Public Bodies Empowering Act, 1914, do hereby cancel the reservation for public buildings or other purposes of the General Government over the land described in the First Schedule hereto, and the reservation for the purposes of a market over the land described in the Second Schedule hereto.
