

Amending Order in Council fixing the Maximum Price of Petrol.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Parliament Buildings, at Wellington, this 11th day of February, 1920.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section two of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, it is enacted that the Governor-General may by Order in Council fix and determine the maximum price in New Zealand of any class of goods and may from time to time in like manner revoke any such Order in Council or vary any maximum price so fixed and determined: And whereas, in pursuance of the authority so conferred on him, the Governor-General, by Order in Council dated the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, inter alia, did fix and determine the maximum price of petrol in New Zealand: And whereas it is now expedient to amend the said Order in Council in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the authority conferred on him as aforesaid, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, doth hereby amend the said Order in Council of the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, in the manner set forth in the Schedule hereto, and in further pursuance and exercise of the said authority doth hereby declare that this Order in Council shall come into operation on the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

SCHEDULE.

CLAUSE 15 of the Schedule to the said Order in Council is hereby revoked, and the following substituted therefor:—

15. The maximum retail price of petrol at the ports named in the following table shall be the price set out in that table:—

Board of Trade Regulations.—Control of the Sale of Flour.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Parliament Buildings at Wellington, this eleventh day of February, 1920.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Board of Trade Act, 1919, it is provided that the Governor-General on the recommendation of the New Zealand Board of Trade, may make by regulation under that Act (to be known as the Board of Trade Regulations) provision for the regulation and control of industries in any manner which is deemed necessary for the maintenance and prosperity of those industries and the economic welfare of New Zealand: And whereas by reason of the present deficiency in the supply of wheat and flour it is deemed necessary to accordingly make provision for the regulation and control of the flour-milling industry: And whereas the making of the regulations hereinafter set forth has been approved and recommended by the New Zealand Board of Trade in pursuance of the said Act:

Now therefore His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion, and in pursuance of the authority conferred upon him by section twenty-six of the Board of Trade Act, 1919, doth hereby on the recommendation of the New Zealand Board of Trade make the following Board of Trade Regulations.

REGULATIONS.

1. THESE regulations may be cited as the Board of Trade (Flour-milling) Regulations, 1920.

2. These regulations shall come into operation on the day after the publication thereof in the Gazette.

3. In these regulations the term "Wheat Controller" means the Wheat Controller for the time being holding office under the Wheat Trade Regulations, 1919, made on the 25th day of February, 1919, under the War Regulations Act, 1914, and the War Legislation Act, 1917.

4. Except in pursuance of a permit issued in that behalf by the Wheat Controller, it shall not be lawful for any flour-miller to deliver or be concerned in the delivery of flour in pursuance of any contract of purchase whether made before or after the coming into operation of these regulations, save that no such permit shall be required for the delivery of flour to a baker for the purpose of his business as such in quantities not exceeding five tons in the aggregate within any period of seven days.

5. Save in pursuance of a permit issued in that behalf by the Wheat Controller, it shall not be lawful for any baker to receive whether from the same or from different sellers a larger aggregate quantity of flour than five tons in any period of seven days in pursuance of any contract or contracts of purchase made either before or after the coming into operation of these regulations.

6. In granting any permit under these regulations the Wheat Controller may enforce such terms and conditions as to the mode of dealing with the flour to which the permit relates as the Controller thinks advisable for the regulation of the flour-milling industry.

7. Any such permit shall be revocable at the will of the Wheat Controller.

8. When flour has been delivered or received under such a permit no person shall thereafter without the consent of the Wheat Controller deal with that flour or be concerned in dealing therewith otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions on which the permit was granted.

9. Any person who makes any false or misleading representation with intent thereby to obtain a permit under these regulations either for himself or for any other person, or who in any manner deceives or attempts to deceive the Wheat Controller in any matter relating to the administration of these regulations shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, and shall be liable accordingly.

10. In these regulations "contract of purchase" includes any contract for the supply of flour for any valuable consideration.

Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Revoking Orders in Council fixing the Maximum Prices of Bacon and Ham.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Parliament Buildings at Wellington, this eleventh day of February, 1920.

Present :

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE W. F. MASSEY, P.C., PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the authority conferred on him by section two of the Regulation of Trade and Commerce Act, 1914, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of that Dominion doth hereby revoke the Order in Council made on the nineteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, fixing the maximum wholesale price of bacon and ham, and the Order in Council made on the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the same date, fixing the maximum retail price of bacon.

F. D. THOMSON,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.
