

address to the registration officer of the district where he is for the time being, and shall, until he returns to his residence, report every change of address to the registration officer of the district of each new address. He shall also report his return to his residence to the registration officer of the district of his residence.

(e.) He shall—

(i.) On his registration obtain from the registration officer a registration certificate ;

(ii.) On every subsequent alteration or addition of any entry in the register relating to his registration produce the certificate to the registration officer in order that, if necessary, a corresponding alteration or addition may be made in the certificate ;

(iii.) Produce the certificate upon demand to any police officer or immigration officer or to any other person authorized by the Secretary of State for the purpose.

(2.) If an alien has no residence in the United Kingdom he shall report his presence in a registration district to the registration officer of the district and conform to such instructions as to registration or otherwise as may be given him by that officer.

(3.) If an alien who is required under this article to register or report is lodging with, or living as a member of the household of, any other person, it shall be the duty of that person to take steps, either by giving notice to the registration officer of the presence of the alien in his household or otherwise, to secure compliance with the terms of this Order in respect of the registration of or reporting by the alien.

(4.) A registration certificate shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(5.) The provisions of this article shall not apply to any person under the age of sixteen years or to any alien not resident in the United Kingdom who has been in the United Kingdom for a period of not more than one month since the date of his last arrival.

7.—(1.) It shall be the duty of the keeper of any premises to which this article applies, to keep a register of all persons staying at the premises who are aliens not being under the age of sixteen years.

The keeper of any such premises shall, on the arrival of any such alien at the premises, ascertain and enter or cause to be entered in the register kept for the purpose the name and nationality of such alien, together with the date of his arrival and the address from which he last came ; and on the departure of any such alien the keeper of the premises shall enter or cause to be entered in the register the date of departure and destination on departure of the alien, and he shall also ascertain and enter in the register from time to time such other particulars as to the alien as may be prescribed.

(2.) The keeper of any premises to which this article applies shall also, if directions for the purpose are issued by the Secretary of State, make to the registration officer of the registration district in which the premises are situate, such returns as to the persons staying at the premises, at such times or intervals, and in such form, as may be specified in such directions.

(3.) It shall be the duty—

(a.) Of every person (whether an alien or not) staying at any premises to which this article applies to sign, when so required, a statement as to his nationality and, if an alien, to furnish and sign a statement of the particulars required under this article ;

(b.) Of the keeper of any premises to which this article applies to require any person who stays at the premises to sign the statement and furnish the particulars required from him under this article and to preserve such statements for such period and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4.) Every register kept, and all particulars furnished, under this article, shall at all reasonable hours be open for inspection by any officer of police or by any person authorized by the Secretary of State.

(5.) The Secretary of State may prescribe the form in which a register is to be kept or statements furnished under this article.

(6.) This article applies to any premises where sleeping accommodation is provided for reward.

8.—(1.) There shall be provided and maintained under the directions of the Secretary of State a central register of aliens in which there shall be registered such particulars in such form as may be prescribed.

(2.) (a.) For the purposes of this Order the chief officer of police of each police district shall be the registration officer for that district, and the police district shall be the registration district.

(b.) A registration officer shall—

(i.) Keep for his registration district a register of the aliens resident therein and required to be registered under this Order, and enter in the register particulars as to the matters set out in the First Schedule to this Order, and such other particulars and in such form as may be prescribed ; and

(ii.) Furnish to the Secretary of State for the purposes of the central register at such time, and in such manner as may be prescribed, copies of all entries in the register or such of them as may be prescribed ; and

(iii.) Supply registration certificates to aliens in accordance with the provisions of this Order and on such terms as to payment or otherwise as may be prescribed.

9.—(1.) The Secretary of State, on the recommendation of the Admiralty, Army Council, or Air Council, may by order declare any area to be a protected area.

(2.) The Secretary of State may as to any protected area by order—

(i.) Prohibit any alien or any class of aliens from entering or remaining in the area ;

(ii.) Impose on any alien or class of aliens entering or being in the area such conditions or restrictions as he may think fit as to (a) registration with or reporting to the police or any naval, military, or air-force authority, (b) surveying or making sketches or photographs, (c) the use or possession of any machine, apparatus, or other article of any description, (d) the acquisition of land or any interest in land within the area, (e) any other matter or thing as to which he may deem it necessary in the interests of public safety to impose conditions or restrictions ;

(iii.) Impose on any householder or other person the obligation to report to the police or any naval, military, or air-force authority, the presence of any alien in his household or in any premises occupied by him or under his control, and the departure of any such alien ;

(iv.) Exempt from the restrictions imposed in respect of the area aliens or any class of aliens who pass through the area in the course of a continuous journey :

Provided that the Secretary of State may authorize, subject to any general or special directions, the registration officer to grant to any individual alien a special permit dispensing with compliance with any general order made under this section.

10.—(1.) A chief officer of police, if so authorized by general or special order of the Secretary of State, may direct that any premises within his jurisdiction which, in his opinion, are used for the sale of refreshments to be consumed on the premises, or as a place of public resort or entertainment, or as a club, and which are or have recently been frequented by aliens, shall be either closed altogether or kept closed during such hours or for such purposes as may be required by him, if, in his opinion, either—

(a.) The aliens so frequenting the premises are of criminal or disloyal associations or otherwise undesirable ; or

(b.) The premises are conducted in a disorderly or improper manner, or in a manner prejudicial to the public good ;

and if any premises are kept open in contravention of any such direction the occupier or person having control of the premises shall be deemed to have acted in contravention of this Order.

(2.) Where any premises have been closed under this section the occupier or person having control of the premises shall not occupy or control any other premises which are used for the sale of refreshments or as a place of public resort or entertainment or as a club without the consent of the chief officer of police for the district in which the premises are situate.

(3.) Any constable, if authorized by the chief officer of police, may, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this article, enter, if necessary by force, and search or occupy any premises in respect to which an order under this article has been made by the Secretary of State.

11.—The Secretary of State may by order impose on any alien or class of aliens such restrictions (either in addition to or in substitution for the other restrictions imposed by this Order) as to residence, reporting to the police, registration, the use or possession of any machine, apparatus, arms, and explosives, or other article, or otherwise, as he may deem to be necessary in the public interest, and any alien in relation to whom any such order is made shall comply with the terms of the order.

12.—(1.) The Secretary of State may, if he deems it to be conducive to the public good, make an order (in this Order referred to as a deportation order) requiring an alien to leave and to remain thereafter out of the United Kingdom. The Secretary of State may, by a deportation order, require the alien to return to the country of which he is a subject or citizen.

(2.) An order made under this article may be made subject to any condition which the Secretary of State may think proper.

(3.) An alien with respect to whom a deportation order is made shall leave the United Kingdom for the destination
