

Court is of opinion that the proceedings of the High Court were not in conformity with natural justice or that a substantial miscarriage of justice has taken place.

Right of audience on appeal.

94. On every case stated for the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and in every appeal to that Court, the parties may either appear in person or be represented by a barrister of the Supreme Court, or may submit their arguments to the Supreme Court in writing.

Transmission of order of Supreme Court on appeal.

95. The determination of the Supreme Court on an appeal from the High Court shall be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court by the Registrar of the Supreme Court under the seal of that Court, and judgment shall thereupon be entered in the High Court in conformity with that determination, or such other proceedings by way of a new trial or otherwise shall be taken in the High Court as are required by such determination.

No appeal to the Court of Appeal.

96. There shall be no appeal to the Court of Appeal from any decision of the Supreme Court of New Zealand on an appeal from the High Court.

Certiorari, mandamus, and prohibition taken away.

97. The Supreme Court shall not exercise control over any Court in Samoa (whether in respect of want of jurisdiction or otherwise) by way of certiorari, mandamus, or prohibition, or in any other manner save by way of appeal in accordance with the provisions of this Order in that behalf.

Enforcement in Samoa of Judgments of New Zealand Courts.

Judgments of Supreme Court or Magistrate's Court in New Zealand may be enforced by the High Court.

98. (1.) Any person in whose favour any judgment whereby any sum of money is made payable has been obtained in the Supreme Court of New Zealand or in a Magistrate's Court in New Zealand in civil proceedings may cause a memorial thereof, authenticated by the seal of the Supreme Court or of the Magistrate's Court, as the case may be, to be filed in the High Court of Western Samoa.

(2.) Judicial notice may be taken by the High Court of the seal of the Supreme Court or Magistrate's Court so affixed to any such memorial.

(3.) Every such memorial shall set forth the names and additions of the parties to the proceeding in which the judgment was given, the form or nature of the proceeding, the date on which the judgment was given, and the amount payable thereunder.

(4.) Every such memorial being so filed shall thenceforth be a record of such judgment, and execution may issue thereon with the leave of the High Court in the same manner as if the like judgment had been given by the High Court, subject, however, to such terms and conditions as the High Court may think fit to impose.

(5.) Leave to issue such execution may be given by the High Court on the application of the party by whom the memorial was filed, and either ex parte or on notice to the party against whom execution is to be issued, as the High Court thinks fit.

Enforcement of judgments of Supreme Court by High Court by way of proceedings for contempt.

99. (1.) When by any judgment of the Supreme Court of New Zealand any person has been ordered to do or abstain from doing any act in Samoa, other than the payment of money, the Supreme Court may then or any time thereafter direct a memorial of such judgment under the seal of the Court to be filed in the High Court of Western Samoa.

(2.) On the filing of such memorial any disobedience to such judgment, whether before or after the filing of the memorial, shall be deemed to be a contempt of the High Court, and may be dealt with by that Court accordingly.

PART V.
