Amending Regulations for Carriage of Deck Cargo.

WHEREAS by Warrant dated the 26th day of April, 1911, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 36, of the 4th day of May following, regulations were made governing the issue of licenses for the carriage of deck cargo and live-stock on the decks of vessels:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the said regulations: Now, therefore, I, William Herbert Herries, Minister of Marine, in exercise of the power and authority conferred upon me by section 223 of the Shipping and Seamen Act, 1908, do hereby make the following amending regulations.

REGULATIONS.

DIVISION B, CLASS I.—FOREIGN-GOING STEAMSHIPS CARRYING PASSENGERS AND CARGO. (Page 14.)

1. PARAGRAPH 1 is hereby revoked, and the following substituted therefor:—

"1. Foreign-going steamships carrying passengers and cargo will be granted licenses for carrying coal on deck for ship's use and for other approved cargo, when applied for, subject to the General Rules and Regulations and to the conditions herein stated. Such licenses shall be special."

2. Paragraph 2 is hereby amended by adding, after the word "voyage" and the words "coal on deck" respectively, the words "and other approved cargo."

3. Paragraph 4 is hereby revoked, and the following paragraph substituted therefor:—

"4. These licenses will be granted to foreign-going steamships with passengers, if approved of by the Superintendent, to carry an amount of coal on deck for ship's use, and for other approved cargo; provided that the quantity of the said coal and approved cargo shall not in the aggregate exceed 5 per cent. of the net register tonnage of the ship. Such coal can be stowed in bulk or in bags as desired."

4. After paragraph 4 add the following paragraph:—

"4A. Approved deck cargo shall mean and include such deck cargo as is approved by the Superintendent, and shall not mean or include such cargo as casks of pelts or similar goods."

As witness my hand, at Wellington, this 29th day of May, 1920.

W. H. HERRIES,
Minister of Marine.
