Declaring the Geraldine County Council to be the River Board of the South Orari River District, under Section 118 of the River Boards Act, 1908.

[L.S.] LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is provided by section one hundred and eighteen of the River Boards Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), that the Governor-General, if he thinks fit, may by Proclamation declare the Council of any county to be the River Board in respect of any river district the limits whereof are entirely included within the limits of such county, subject to the conditions imposed by the said section:

And whereas the South Orari River District (hereinafter referred to as "the said river district") is a river district duly constituted under the said Act:

And whereas a petition, signed by a majority of the rate-payers of the said river district, has been presented to the Governor-General, after having been publicly notified in the said river district for not less than thirty days, praying that the Council of the County of Geraldine shall be declared to be the River Board of the said district, the limits whereof are entirely included within the limits of the County of Geraldine:

And whereas a resolution of the Geraldine County Council concurring in the prayer of the aforesaid petition has been transmitted to the Governor-General:

And whereas it is deemed advisable to declare the said Geraldine County Council to be the River Board in respect of the said river district:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by section one hundred and eighteen of the said Act, I, Arthur William de Brito Savile, Earl of Liverpool, the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim and declare the Geraldine County Council to be the River Board of the said river district; and that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the tenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty.
