

pursuance of section one hundred and seventeen of the Public Works Act, 1908, conditions have been imposed with respect to the building-line in the case of any street or road exempted from the provisions of that section, the Governor-General may from time to time by Order in Council, on the application of the local authority having control of that road or street, amend the first-mentioned Order in Council by cancelling or varying the conditions imposed thereby, and any such cancellation or variation may extend to the whole or to any part or parts of the said road or street:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 138, pages 3947/8, of the second day of December, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, exempting the portion of street described in the Schedule thereto, and known as Derwent Street, Island Bay, Wellington, from the provisions of section one hundred and seventeen of the Public Works Act, 1908, a condition was imposed "that no building or part of a building shall be erected at any time on the eastern side of the said portion of street within a distance of thirty-three feet of the centre-line of the said portion of street":

And whereas the Wellington City Council, the local authority having control of the said portion of street, has made application that the said Order in Council may be amended by cancelling the condition subject to which the said portion of street was exempted: And whereas it is desirable that such application should be granted:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Public Works Amendment Act, 1908, and of all other powers in anywise enabling him in this behalf, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby amend the said Order in Council by cancelling the said condition with regard to the building-line.

Domain Board appointed to have Control of the Weedon Domain.

LIVERPOOL, Governor-General.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this fifteenth day of June, 1920.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section forty of the Public Reserves and Domains Act, 1908 (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is enacted that the Governor-General may from time to time, with respect to any public domain, appoint such persons (not exceeding nine) as he thinks fit to be a Domain Board having, subject to Part II of the said Act, control of such domain:

And whereas by an Order in Council made on the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the seventeenth day of that month, a Domain Board was appointed to control the Weedon Domain:

And whereas the period for which the said Board was appointed expired on the eleventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty:

And whereas it appears expedient to again appoint a Domain Board to control the said domain:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor-General of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby appoint

HENRY CURRAGH,
GEORGE FILLANS GILMOUR,
LAURENCE BERNARD MANION,
WILLIAM PHILLIPS, and
DAVID WILSON
