Extension of Copyright Act, 1913, to French Morocco.

ROBERT STOUT,
Administrator of the Government.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 26th day of July, 1920.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and gazetted on the first day of April then instant (hereinafter referred to as "the said Order"), the Copyright Act, 1913, was extended to the foreign countries therein mentioned, subject to the provisions set out in the said Order: And whereas it is desired to extend the said Order to the French Protectorate of Morocco:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the Copyright Act, 1913, doth hereby extend the said Order to that part of the Empire of Morocco which is under French protection, as if it were amongst the foreign countries of the Copyright Union named in paragraph (1) of the said Order, subject to the following modifications:—

(1.) The provisions of paragraph (2), proviso (iii) (a), of the said Order shall apply as if the aforesaid part of the Empire of Morocco were included amongst the foreign countries named in those provisions.

(2.) In the application of the provisions of paragraph (3) of the said Order to works of which the country of origin is the aforesaid part of the Empire of Morocco, the commencement of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the said Act and for the commencement of the said Order.

(3.) In the application to such works of sections 3 (2) (d) and 25 of the Copyright Act, 1913, the commencement of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the said Act in section 25 (7) and 25 (8) wherever that expression occurs.

(4.) In the application to such works of the provisions of section 32 of the Copyright Act, 1913, the commencement of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the said Act wherever that expression occurs in subsection (1) (a), and for the 1st July, 1913, in subsection (1) (b).

This Order shall come into operation on the 26th day of July, 1920, which date is in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order.
