Appointing a Member of the Gisborne Harbour Board.

ROBERT STOUT.

Administrator of the Government.

WHEREAS it is provided by section seventeen of the Harbours Amendment Act, 1910, that the office of any member of a Harbour Board shall become vacant if, inter alia, he resigns his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Secretary or Chairman of the Board:

And whereas it is provided by subsection two of section eighteen of the said Act that when an elective member, other than a representative of a constituent district, vacates his office on the Board through the operation of the said section seventeen, the Governor-General may, by Warrant under his hand, appoint some qualified person in his place:

And whereas Joseph William James Preston, an elective member of the Gisborne Harbour Board, being a representative of the payers of harbour dues, has resigned his office as a member of the Board, and it is desirable to appoint a qualified person as a representative in his place:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, in exercise of the hereinbefore-recited power and authority, doth hereby appoint

THOMAS CORSON
