

2. SYSTEM OF SUPPLY.

The system of supply shall be as described in paragraph (a) (1) of clause 3 of the regulations.

The generating voltage shall be approximately 230 volts between the terminals.

3. DATUM TEMPERATURE.

For the purpose of calculating the stresses as provided in clause 15 of the regulations, the datum temperature shall be taken as 22 degrees Fahrenheit.

4. DURATION OF LICENSE.

This license shall, unless sooner determined in accordance with the provisions hereinafter expressed, continue in force for a period of forty-two years from the date hereof. Upon the expiry of the said term, or upon the sooner determination of this license by revocation or otherwise, all rights hereby granted to the licensee shall thereupon cease and determine; but such expiration or determination shall not relieve the licensee of any liability theretofore incurred under this license.

5. REQUIREMENTS OF MIRAMAR BOROUGH COUNCIL.

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the licensee shall not be entitled to erect, maintain, or use any electric lines within the Borough of Miramar, except subject to such conditions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this license and the regulations relating thereto, or any variation of this license, or the regulations or new regulations which may take the place of these regulations, as may from time to time be agreed upon between the licensee and the Miramar Borough Council.

ROBERT STOUT.

Administrator of the Government.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House at Wellington, this 24th day of September, 1920.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on him by section three of the Public Revenues Act, 1910, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Dominion, doth hereby make the following regulations in amendment of the Treasury Regulations made on the twenty-third day of December, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty; and doth direct that the regulations hereby made shall form part of and be read with the aforesaid regulations, and shall come into force on the date of gazetting thereof.

REGULATIONS.

I. GENERAL.

12A. ALL inward registered correspondence should be opened by one officer in the presence of another. Particulars of enclosures therein, and also of valuable enclosures received in unregistered postal packets, must be entered immediately in the Standard Values Book, which is issued by the Government Storekeeper for the purpose, and the items in such book shall be checked at the end of each accounting period with the entries in the relative Cash Book.

12B. Outward letters containing drafts or negotiable documents of any kind must be closed down by a responsible officer, who will be accountable for their safe transmission to the post-office.

VII. MISAPPROPRIATION OF PUBLIC MONEYS OR PROPERTY.

136. If any person having possession or control of any public moneys or property fraudulently applies, or causes or permits the same or any part thereof to be so applied, to other than public services, or is a defaulter in respect of any such moneys or property, the Permanent Head of the Department concerned shall, upon discovery of such misappropriation or default, immediately report the matter to the Audit Office and to the Treasury.

VIII. ORDERS FOR SUPPLIES OBTAINABLE THROUGH THE HIGH COMMISSIONER.

137. The Permanent Head of every Department shall without delay advise the Treasury of all orders despatched, either by cable or letter, to the High Commissioner for purchase of stores or supplies of whatever kind; also the approximate cost thereof, and date when payment will be required, so that the necessary funds may be provided.
